Presidents' Report – November 2012

November is Here!!

The Halloween colored attire and the jewellery were quite intriguing, especially the "three carrot ring". Thank you all for participating.!

This month, as you know, I have challenged you to bring a Christmas ornament (wrapped) to exchange, preferably one you have made but anything will be accepted. Please wrap it and I will have a basket to put them in.

How are you making out with the Presidents' Challenge Blocks? Has everyone got their Christmas projects well under way? We had lots of fun at the 'Lighted Christmas Tree Workshop'. I am hoping to have mine finished for Show And Tell.

Along with all the new quilts you will be bringing, please include Christmas themed quilts for Show and Tell. I would love to have the walls covered!

See you on November 24!

Lois

S.C.Q.G. Resource Day Minutes

October 27, 2012

Holy Family Church Hall, Sechelt, BC

President Lois Anderson called the meeting to order at 10:45 a.m.

President's Report: Lois Anderson

· Lois asked for a motion to approve the minutes of the September meeting. This motion was seconded and carried without discussion.

· Lois asked that the Secretary read: (1) an email from Doreen Rombough thanking our Guild for asking her to provide us with a Trunk Show last month, and another email from Doreen thanking the ladies who took her Cutting Edge class; and (2) a letter from CQA thanking our Guild for the $100.00 donation.

· Lois again asked if there was anyone willing to stand for Vice-President. As there were no other volunteers, Jeannette Lucas has conceded to fill in that role.

Treasurer: Priscilla Hendriks reported our bank balance at $16,464.52. She is still preparing a budget and will have this completed for the November meeting.

Hands Across the Water: Jeannette Lucas reported that she could not attend but had sent a note stating that SCQG would host this event in 2013. Comox Valley thought they were hosting next year, which works out well for our Guild, as we can now concentrate fully on the quilt show. Carol Bowie was concerned about the ferry service when we host this event in 2014, so we will let travellers know well in advance about ferries and billeting. Kim Thompson raised the idea of considering having this event every second year. Noreen Tretick suggested that we not host Hands Across the Water the same year we are putting on a quilt show.

Comfort Society: Karen Biddlecombe reported their bank balance at $2,694.00. Their new bylaws will be voted on in November. She thanked those who have already provided finished quilts and stated that there was batting available for anyone still interested in the baby quilt project.

Retreat: Fay Bullock reported that 39 quilters attended this year's retreat and that she was still awaiting word from Camp Sunrise as to when we might get a date for next fall or spring. Helen Bentley will chair this event in 2013.

Bus Trips: Sharon Roye says that she is taking names for a bus trip to the Quilt BC National Juried Show in Penticton next May 17 to 19th.

Newsletter: Val Marus reminded members that cut-off for the next newsletter is November 3rd.

Round Robin: Elizabeth Nordlund reported that there were still boxes available and reminded everyone about the appliqué classes ongoing in her home on Thursdays.

Library: Maria Lodzinski provided a quick report on the five new books now available in our library.

Quilt Show: Eryl Shindel spoke about the classes available during the upcoming quilt show and will put a notice to that regard in the newsletter.

Block of the Month: Debbie Scott reported that less than half of last month's blocks were returned and encouraged members to finish their blocks and bring them in. This month's winner was Gail Junnila.

Membership: Thank you to Carola's Quilt Shop for providing the 5 door prizes. Over 90 members signed in this month and visitors were recognized with a round of applause.

Program: Lynda White reminded everyone to measure the perimeter of their Show & Tell quilts and to pin that figure to a note in the corner of their quilt. Fat-quarter draws were won by Sharon Halford and Eryl Shindel.

Merchandising: Gayle Reichert put forth a question to the membership regarding whether or not we wanted to purchase T-shirts with a guild logo. These would cost approximately $25.00, with the price increasing according the value of the shirt, i.e. long sleeves, golf shirt, sweatshirt, etc.

New Business: Lois will try to move Resource Day to the third Saturday in March so as not to conflict with Easter weekend.

Off the Wall: Marilyn Giesbrecht reported that the Comfort Society presented a wall quilt to the new Sumac Place in Gibsons and gave a short talk about the facility.

Show and Tell

Trunk Show and Presentation: Paul Krampitz from the Vancouver Modern Quilt Guild gave a lively and informative talk about his many quilts and projects.

S.C.Q.G. EXECUTIVE MEETING

October 27, 2102

Holy Family Church Hall, Sechelt, BC

In attendance:	Lois Anderson	Marg Kurys
Carol Bowie	Jeannette Lucas	Judi Wilson
Val Marus	Priscilla Hendriks	Lynda White
Andrea Wilson	Gail Reichert	Fay Bullock
Karen Biddlecombe	Merilee Martell

September minutes: moved, seconded and carried as written.

Correspondence: CQA request for donations for 2013. It was decided that we will again send $100.00 for the National Juried Show.

Hands Across the Water: Jeannette reports that Comox Valley will be 2013 hosts and we will host in 2014.

Comfort Society: After a short discussion it was decided that, for guideline purposes, a queen-sized quilt would be valued at $2,000.00 and a king-sized quilt at $2,500.00.

Treasurer: Priscilla took us through the Proposed Budget, making a few changes after discussion. The budget will be presented at the November Guild meeting.

Retreat: Fay has not yet been contacted by Camp Sunrise to let her know what fall and spring dates are available for our group.

Program: Lois proposed we attempt a "seat sale" whereby anything that can fit onto a chair seat can be sold by the person occupying that chair. This could potentially happen in May, before elections. Lynda will check with her committee to see if they like this idea.

Gail Reichert asked that questions from the floor be repeated over the microphone for all to hear. She would also like members to announce their name when showing a quilt.

Meeting adjourned at 2:45 p.m.

COMFORT QUILTS – November 2012 Newsletter

2012-2013 - Committee: Carol Adams, Gail Reichert and Karen Biddlecombe

2012 – 2013 SCQG Comfort Quilts Challenge:

We are proceeding with our Challenge to supply the needed number of baby quilts born at St. Mary's Hospital, The Comfort Society purchased a bolt of batting for this project and it was distributed during the October meeting. There were members who were not able to receive batting for their charity projects so we will be purchasing a 2nd bolt, and plan on bringing it with us for the November meeting.

The expectation is that the quilt you create is of the same quality you would make for yourself. Cotton material is the preferred fabric. All sizing of quilts are welcome including wall hangings.

Note to SCQG Membership:

The 'CONSTITUTION OF THE SUNSHINE COAST QUILTERS' COMFORT SOCIETY ' requires amending – and requires giving membership the appropriate notice regarding these amendments so that they can be voted as revised, as such this is the notice advising membership that the By-Laws will be reviewed during the November 2012 meeting and is attached to the newsletter. Please note that efforts have been made to apply "generic" wording and alignment to the Sunshine Coast Quilters Guild language.

* See Page 12 for proposed amendment changes, which we will vote on Resource Day

Mini Workshops – November Resource Day

Mini Workshop fee is $5.00, payable at the door.

We are offering four mini-workshops in November, all with the theme of "Christmas Decor" in mind. All 4 workshops will be limited to 8 participants in each.
You may pre-register by e-mailing Cathy Collins at <harmony@dccnet.com>, or take your chances by arriving early (8.45 am) at Resource Day on November 24th.

1. Joan Harvey "Freezer Paper Foundation Paper Piecing"
Have you given up on foundation paper piecing because you can't stand tearing away all that paper, skewing your fabrics, and undoing your seams? Here's the way to do it without all that bother! In this workshop, you will learn how to use freezer paper as the easily removed foundation. You'll also produce simple 4" Christmas pieces which might be used for coasters, tree ornaments, gift tags, door knob decorations, or.... whatever else you can come up with.

Supplies to bring: Some assorted Christmas coloured fabrics in light, medium & dark values - scrap pieces larger than 2" x 2" will do. Also bring your sewing machine loaded with neutral coloured thread, a small iron (we can share), and a rotary cutter and mat.

2. Pauline Weber "Pieced Mini Christmas Stocking"
A lovely little ornament for your tree made of foundation pieces on muslin using tiny Christmas scraps of fabric. You can use velvets, brocades, etc.
Supplies to bring: Assorted scraps of above fabrics (1-2" squares or strips). Needle, thread, pins, scissors, flat wooden tool for pressing seams or mini iron & pressing pad.
.50c to instructor for Foundation Pieced Kit.

3. Marian Williamson "Fabric Folded Stars"
While hosting a Japanese Rotary Exchange student Marian became interested in origami - paper folding. This led to an interest in fabric folding which she will share with participants in this workshop. You will learn the art of making a folded fabric star - a three-dimensional star which can be incorporated into any quilt. Marian will provide you with a kit - Christmas fabric and instructions so you can make a star or two.
Kit: $3.00 to instructor.
Supplies to bring: Mini iron & pressing pad (we can share).

4. Judi Wilson "Snowman Ornaments"
Friends and family will adore these charming ornaments. They are easy to make and will enhance your holiday decor, or can be used as gifts. Judi will provide participants with a complete kit to make one snowman along with instructions to make more when you get home.
Supplies to bring: Scissors (both paper & fabric), glue stick, needle, lightweight cardboard for templates (cereal boxes work well).
Kit $5.00 or less to Judi.

October Program Activities & Looking ahead....

A packed house enjoyed Paul Krampitz's presentation and trunk show at the October Resource Day. After the meeting, a number of Guild members approached the Program Committee, and asked us to arrange for future workshops with Paul. If you missed the meeting or would like a chance to have another look at Paul's trunk show, check out his website at: http://paulsblockparty.blogspot.ca/

Tell us what workshop interests you:

Frasson's Mod Mosaic Technique Pick Up Sticks
Stack & Cut Technique for a Ripples Quilt Pennants & Sailboats

The workshops are centered on techniques such as "Pick Up Sticks" where you learn to insert one inch strips into a block for a very 'modern look'.

*Barb Mortell's workshop "Not Just Another Log Cabin", held last April, introduced the techniques in the "Gee's Bend Style Quilt" on Paul's workshop list so that is one we would not include on the list.

FEEDBACK Please!! e-mail mail4margi@dccnet.com Visit the Program Table LET US KNOW

"The Lighted Christmas Tree", a snappy, enjoyable workshop with Maureen Wood was held on October 28th. It was fun to see the variety of fabric selections for the trees which ranged from cool blues to traditional greens. Hope to see some of these at a future Show & Tell.

PROGRAMS COMING UP AT THE NOVEMBER RESOURCE DAY

Uschi Greiner and Kerry Karram of Wool Penny Rugs will be giving a trunk show and mini workshop at our November meeting. Uschi and Kerry have been hand dying wool since 2003, and launched their website www.woolpennyrugs.com in Nov. 2009.

They will be showing samples of their work, using traditional penny rug techniques, continuing on with their own evolution of the penny rug, incorporating flannel, cotton, and silk velvet into their designs.

They will be offering a mini workshop, after their trunk show with an optional kit available. The project will be a gift card envelope, using a Christmas motif, and will be perfect for hostess gifts or stocking stuffers.

Kits will be priced at $7.95 including tax. They will bring about 30 kits, so if you would like to put your name on one, please email info@woolpennyrugs.com

Other Workshops Coming up in 2013

Plans are in the works to have Sherri Coulthard teach a one-day "Crazy Quilt Workshop" in late February. Learn to piece your block and be ready to create more using stitching and embroidery, beading and ribbons to embellish your project.

Any questions about the class? e-mail sherricoulthard@dccnet.com

North Shore Quilter, Carol Ann Pettigrew is slated to come to the Sunshine Coast near the end of May to teach a one-day workshop featuring her own design of a "Labyrinth Quilt", a sewing project that takes on a spiritual outlook.
