Presidents' Report – March 2013

March has come in like a very wet lion! I have three things I wanted to accomplish this month. The first was my block for the Round Robin. Thanks to the rain, it is done and ready to be passed on. The second is to complete another baby quilt for the hospital and the third is to get the Presidents Challenge blocks put together. I am hoping to have that ready for the Quilt Show. One down and two to go! How are you doing on your to do list?

I expect that everyone will be wearing their name tags next month. Just be prepared to pay your fine. I won't make you come up and sing, but do come with something green on. Not sure what I will do with that idea but will think of something!

As we are close to the Quilt Show and everyone is saving their quilts for that, I think we should have a fashion show. So wear your vests, jackets, hats, anything that you have made - quilted and or knit – and of course any quilts you do want to show!

See you on March 23!

Happy quilting!

Lois

S.C.Q.G. Resource Day Minutes
February 23, 2013

Holy Family Church Hall, Sechelt, BC

President Lois Anderson called the meeting to order at 11:00 a.m.

President's Report: Lois Anderson

Lois welcomed everyone and asked for a motion to accept the January minutes: moved by Helen Bailey, seconded by Eileen Evans. Carried.

Two pieces of correspondence were read by the secretary.

Treasurer: Priscilla Hendriks reported the bank balance.

Old Business: Lois requested more small bags be made to go to Quilt Canada in Penticton. She had several on display at the front table.

So far we have quilted 112,359 inches or 2,844 meters of fabric for the Quilt Canada Challenge.

Lois relayed that Capilano University is happy with any donation we can provide them.

All those members not wearing name tags provided us with a strange rendition of a Christmas song.

***Please remember your name tag as you never know what your President will require of you should you forget it.***

Merchandise: Gail is taking orders for Guild logo merchandise. Approximately 2/3 of the cost of each item will be taken as a deposit as the exact purchase price will not be known until she has a firm order to place. Items will be ready for the Quilt Show.

Quilt Show: Fay states that everything is going well. One note: unless more people sign up for Sharon Pederson's class, Fay will have to cancel this teacher.

Carla Wilkinson asked for volunteers for the Tea Room. She will be asking for baked goods by category so as to avoid too much duplication in the type of sweets supplied.

Elizabeth would like anyone with an appliquéd quilt to show it in the Quilt Show. Any unusual quilts must be hung up and taken down by the owner.

Comfort Society: Carol thanked all those who made and donated baby quilts. Tiny baby quilts for car seats would also be welcomed. Satellite group reps have received raffle tickets for their groups to sell. Members are needed for mall sales. The raffle quilt is currently at Fibre Expressions and will then go to Sew Easy and finally to Carola's for display.

Bus Trips: Sharon announced that rooms have been reserved in a hotel near the boardwalk and casino in Penticton. Total cost for travel and room is $275.00/person. The bus trip is full but she is taking names on a wait list.

Mini Workshops: Ada announced that March workshops will be provided by: Carol Bowie – Fun & Easy Foundation Paper Piecing, and Nancy Climie – Celtic Quilting.

Block of the Month: Won by Debbie Scott.

Membership: Lee Ewing states that 87 members signed in today. Door prize winners were: Cervia Nutbrown, Judy Skogstad, Hilary Henderson, Lois Anderson and Fran deBoer.

Newsletter: Linda reminded members that the deadline for the next newsletter is March 2nd as our next meeting will be held on March 23rd.

Library: Maria thanked everyone for sending well wishes and states that she will have the library running perfectly again by next month.

Program: Marg announced that Paul Krampitz will be one of the teachers at our next Retreat.

On March 16th Sherri Coulthard will be teaching a workshop on Crazy Quilting to be held in her home from 10 am until 4 pm. Please call Sherri at 604-741-0702 for details.

Lynda White announced that the winner of the fat quarter draw was Jean Bowering.

Lois thanked the Halfmoon Crazies for providing today's coffee and goodies.

Reminder: Powell River will be holding their Quilt Show on March 9th and 10th.

Show & Tell

Marg introduced Guild member Joan Harvey, who gave an informative and entertaining talk about her experience in a Nancy Crow workshop. Joan brought along the projects she worked on in those classes so that we could see the type of artistic talent that Nancy is known for and the kind of inspiration she imparts on her workshop attendees.

S. C. Q. G. EXECUTIVE MEETING

February 23, 2013

Holy Family Church Hall, Sechelt, BC

In attendance:

Lois Anderson	Marg Kurys	Helen Bailey
Carol Bowie	Lynda White	Debbie Scott
Merilee Martell	Priscilla Hendriks	Gail Reichert
Fay Bullock	Carol Adams	Linda Kummer

Lois asked for a vote regarding the matter of payment to Sandra Snitchuk for her help with sewing canvases for the Quilt Show frames. Lynda White made a motion to pay Sandra $100.00; seconded by Merilee Martell. CARRIED

Merilee will make application to the Community Arts Council to request $600.00 to offset the cost of hiring a teacher for two days during Retreat.

It was decided by the Executive to exclude the dollar figure of the Guild bank balance in the minutes, as the newsletter is open to the general public for viewing.

Lois will prepare the new Guild information flyers to be given to new members. They will also be available at each of the quilt shops to introduce the Guild, and provide information about the Guild to all current and potential quilters.

Carol Adams is having pictures of the raffle quilt produced to go along with the flyers in various stores and businesses, and encouraged everyone to sell their tickets.

Helen reported that the price to attend Retreat will have to be increased to $275.00/person (an increase of $15.00). Camp Sunrise is now charging $201.50 per attendee.

Meeting adjourned at 2:00 p.m.

COMFORT QUILTS – February 2013 Newsletter

2012-2013 – Committee: Carol Adams, Gail Reichert and Karen Biddlecombe

2012 - 2013 SCQG Comfort Quilts Challenge:

St. Mary's Hospital has now received 24 baby quilts for distribution as at Feb 28/13. Currently in inventory there are 21 suitable for babies and 5 for others. They did ask for more 'boy' suitable colors for this last set handed over, We were able to do this from what we had received.

Please continue to work on your baby quilts and hand them in as they are completed as this project is being very well received in the community.

We would like to thank those who have donated fabric, it is very welcomed by all and will enable the SCQG members to keep on quilting.

\*Please note the size of the Raffle quilt. It has been measured at 79 x 90, which will cover the top of a king size bed; however will not drape a king sized bed. This may or may not be an issue with a raffle ticket buyer.*

(The expectation is that the quilt you create is of the same quality you would make for yourself. Cotton material is the preferred fabric. While our 2012-2013 focus is for baby sized quilts, all sizing of quilts are welcome, including wall hangings.)

Your Quilt Show needs you!

There will be many opportunities for volunteering at the Quilt Show in May. Sign-up sheets will be available at the February through April meetings. Please take a minute to put your name down for the time slots you are able to help. Most shifts during show hours are only two hours in length – allowing you to sign up for more than one job and still have time to visit the show or take a class yourself.

The following is a short description of the different jobs to help you make choices. Please ask anyone from the Quilt Show committee if you need more information.

Poster Crew:

Volunteers are needed to hang information posters in different locales on the coast. These posters will also need to be removed after the show

Set Up Frames and Tables:

Heritage Quilts:

A section will be set up displaying Heritage quilts. Assistance is needed to lay out the area and display the quilts. During show hours volunteers will be in the area monitoring visitors, answering questions and making sure the quilts do not get handled. Once the show is over assistance is needed to take down the display and organize the quilts for return to their owners.

White Glove Hostess:

During show hours volunteers will be in the area monitoring visitors, answering questions and making sure the quilts are not touched by bare hands. The hostesses will be wearing white gloves and will offer to hold the quilt closer for inspection and to show the back of quilt if asked.

A tea room will be set up on the mezzanine level. Hostesses will assist in preparation of light snacks, serving customers and cleaning up. The first shift each day will help set up the tables and the last shift will assist in cleanup .

SCQG 2013 QUILT SHOW CHALLENGE

This item was well worth repeating for those who did not see it last month.

You are invited to enter a finished quilt to meet the following challenge:

To create a quilt that depicts one or all of the scenes that make the Sunshine Coast special to you. This is wide open to your individual creativity and imagination whether you are a “new” or “seasoned” quilter, BUT you must meet the following criteria:

Finished Size: 10” X 24” (Can be horizontal or vertical) with a sleeve on the back for hanging.

The quilt must include a sun somewhere on it, any size.

It must include a traditional block of your choice, any size.

That’s it!!

There will be two categories. One for those who use a computerized embroidery machine to create their vision and one for hand-embroidered or machine stitched embellishments.

You may use ONE fabric photo in your design no larger than 5” X 7”, but this may not include the sun nor the traditional block.

The winners in both categories will be voted on by attendees at our 2013 SCQG Quilt Show.
