PRESIDENT'S REPORT— Rojean Trent

Well here we all are in 2020!

Happy New Year my quilting friends! Is everyone busy organizing their sewing rooms/studios for another year of quilting fun? I have been, and it's been an eye opener! I have many started projects from classes I have taken and not finished the projects I started in class. I am sure many of you could say the same. So I am sending out an SOS! Sew Our Stash! If you are stuck on what to do, someone has probably taken the same class and could help you to get started back on it. I will announce at Resource day any SOSs' you may need help with. Just let me know at Resource day. Someone may step forward to help.

Our January Resource, as usual, lands on Support Your Local Quilt Shop Day. It's always the last Saturday in January. We are very fortunate to have a number of quilt/sewing stores on the coast. If you have a chance, stop by and say thanks. They may have a sale happening that day. (Hint!)

Just a reminder to bring in your small quilt projects/crafts for show and tell. We have tables up front of the stage to better showcase them. Out of Bounds art quilting group did a trunk show one resource day. Many of us were inspired and so we started our own groups and are still going strong. By sharing what we do, we can inspire others.

See you all soon!

Obituary Notice for

Singer Futura CE-350/CE-250
December 2008-October 2019

Singer Futura passed away silently in her sleep. She gave many wonderful years sewing projects such as Quilts, Clothes, Pillows, Soft Baby Toys, Placemats, Table Runners, Mug Rugs, and Holiday Decor. She was a wonderful companion and was very patient while her owners 6 grandchildren learned how to sew. Singer Futura is preceded in death by a Kenmore 10.

Singer Futura is survived by her many sewing companions on the sewing table; Rotary Cutter, Rulers, and Mat, Scissors, Straight Pins, Seam Ripper, Lamp AND many scraps of material. Unfortunately, the many bins of fabric will never have an opportunity to know her.

In lieu of flowers we ask you to make something warm and gift it to someone in need (homeless or illness).

My Sewing Machine and I
by Trudy Callan
(Sewing With Trudy)

Oh, Sewing Machine, you beckon me,
in the morning light,
to come and sit awhile
and work together on beautiful creations of delight.

I enjoy our times together,
you are a faithful friend.
Always there when I need you.
On you, I can depend.

You enable me to relax and unwind
and free my mind to soar.

I am glad I have you;
because with you,

I am so much more! (I hope you found this "obituary" humorous as I had fun putting it together. I am sad that she is no more but am happy to get a newer machine.)

SCQG President Challenge 2019-20

"Music is my Muse"

Music has the ability to move people in many ways and sometimes at the oddest times. It can get us up out of our chairs, bring back memories and change the way we feel at any given moment.

This is the challenge:

There are three categories.

"Memories"

What song brings back that moment in time? The good, the bad and the weird. Where were you when you first heard the music and why do you remember it so well? Does it bring back your first kiss? Your first slow dance? A moment frozen in time that floods back every time you hear it.

"Get up out of that chair!"

What song always gets you up on the dance floor? What guilty pleasure gets you up out of your sewing room chair and dancing with and by yourself with nobody watching? What music makes your body want to move!?

"A little bit of soul."

What song reaches into your soul and pulls out your guts? What song do you listen to over and over again that speaks to you? What song has the ability to take you from a mood of 1 and take you to a 10? Or reversed? 10 to a 1 and crying on the floor. That song that tells your story.

Rules:

1. You may enter all three categories as many times as you like. Let's face it! We sometimes have more than one song that can make us laugh or cry.
2. Or, you may enter only one category once.
3. All technology of quilting may be used but, it must be your own design. Traditional, modern, art, etc.
4. It must be a quilt by definition. Three layers held together with stitches.
5. I would like to limit the size to 40" by 40". But any size up to that will qualify.
6. You must include the name of the song and a description, short or long, of why you choose the song. These will hang with your quilt at the reveal.

The reveal will be at the May 2020 Resource meeting.

A viewers' choice ribbon will be presented in each category.

Good luck! Rojean

DON'T YA JUST LOVE
THESE 2 LEGGED QUILTS?

Posted on May 16, 2010 by Cindi POSTAGE STAMP QUILT

Do you love the look of Postage Stamp quilts but aren't too keen on cutting out thousands of those teeny-tiny squares and sewing them back together again? This tutorial will show you how to make a Postage Stamp quilt block in a flash – by strip piecing. The block will finish at 8×8" in your quilt (there are 64 1-inch blocks in each square) and will look like you spent months sewing it together!

This is a great way to use up scraps or those extra fat quarters from another project. For a truly scrappy block try to use as many different fabrics as possible – 25-30 different fabrics for an 8×8" block. You can use less or more, it doesn't matter. What do you have on hand? Use it! Or take one 1-1/2" strip from every single fabric you have in your stash. You DON'T have to have fabrics that match from a "line" of fabrics. Just pick out some fabrics of all different colors or patterns. Trust me, it will look terrific.

I'm assuming you know the basics of quilting so I won't go into all of the usual – clean your machine, basic rotary cutter safety, using 1/4" seams, how to use an iron, yadda-yadda-yadda.

So let's get started! First, cut your fabric into 1-1/2" strips.

Here's a tip: I like to make myself a grid from painter's tape on my cutting mat. I'll mark arrows on the tape every 1-1/2 inches. This grid is only used as a guide to make sure I don't cut my strips too short or too wide.

After cutting the strips, mix them all up in a messy pile. This helps keep everything scrappy.

Chain piece the strips together in twos. Cut them apart and press seams to one side.

Put all of these into a messy pile, and chain piece the strips together again, making sets of 4. When you sew them together the seams will all be pressed ONE WAY, so make sure you're sewing them all in the same direction. You don't want the seams all willy-nilly. Try not to get two of the same fabrics side-by-side.

Be sure to press all of these in one direction only. Trust me. One direction only.

Put all these into a messy pile AGAIN and sew, chain style, into sets of 8 (you get the drill now – you don't need a picture of these). Once again watch how you sew them so all the seams will face the same direction. Press and take these sets to your cutting mat.

Cut these 8-strip sections into 1-1/2" strips.

Put these 1-1/2" strips in a messy pile or if you're like me, put them in nice, neat piles so you can be anal-retentive and match them the way you want.

Now chain-piece these new strips together the same way as above. This is where pressing everything in the same direction can help you lock the squares. Just turn the strips in opposite directions so they butt together.

Chain strip 2...

Chain strip 4...

Chain strip 8. Be sure to press all seams to one side.

You want to end up with a block that is 8 squares x 8 squares. This is where pressing all those strips in the same direction will come in handy. Lock the strips by turning each strip in a different direction to sew (horizontal strips), and press in one direction (vertical strips).

Voila! You've got an 8.5 x 8.5" block! When you sew these blocks together, you're going to find that occasionally (or more than occasionally!) blocks of the same fabrics are going to butt together.

Believe me, once you've sewn all of these blocks together into a quilt top you won't even notice.

HISTORY

In 1982 a group of women on the Sunshine Coast got together to share their love of quilting. Pat Crucil, an accomplished quilter and teacher, established this first quilt group on the Coast. Today the Sunshine Coast Quilters' Guild is the "umbrella" organization for six local community quilt groups from Pender Harbour to Gibsons, with a membership of 117. The guild promotes the joy of quilting on the Coast by providing enjoyment through quilt shows, classes, demonstrations and displays. We continue to meet eight days throughout our Guild year, from September to May at the Holy Family Parish Hall in West Sechelt (5700 Nickerson Road). Our meetings consist of Mini-Workshops, Business Meetings, Show and Tell, Library and a Program.

S.C.Q.G. LIBRARY

We are looking for recommendations for new books, magazines and DVDs. Please tell us what you would like to be able to borrow from your library. What topics or special techniques would you like to learn more about? Does your favourite quilter/instructor have their own book? Email Phyllis Argyle at

If you can't make it to a meeting, let us know the number on the sticker on the front of the book or magazine so we can renew your library books for you. Call Phyllis at 604-885-3285 or email the above address. There will be only one (1) renewal. Thanks very much from your library committee: Betti McGilver, Eryl Shindel, Louise Keats, Phyllis Argyle.
