Guild Minutes	10-13

I was thrilled with our first meeting of the year, thank you all for making Resource day successful. Thanks for all the great feedback as I am very new at this and all and any feedback is appreciated.

September gathered 70 members with 14 new members joining the Guild this year. This brings our total membership up to over 100, WOW!!

Show and Tell was wonderful, such a talented group. Amazing as always, with the Comfort Society receiving 28 quilts. This is an exciting year for the Guild with our Quilt show being held in May, 2025. I hope everyone picked up their quilt show information packet and you are getting your quilts ready to show?

I introduced my President's challenge "Up-Cycling". I hope you are considering taking up the challenge as I look forward to seeing all your creations. (Details on page 6)

Halloween is coming up, I hope we will see many of you out in costume @ the October meeting.

If you have any new business that you would like to have addressed at the meeting, please contact me before that day so I can add you to the agenda.

Happy Quilting,
Nancy

2024-2025 Program

Hello all, your Program Committee consists of: Chair: Karen Biddlecombe. Members: Jude Grebeldinger, Darlene Finch, Lori Lemay, Jennie Starr, Sue Lowell

Lots of things to see and do when you come to the OCTOBER 2024 meeting! We do have some “mini notebooks” for sale-these make great Christmas gifts, small enough to have in your car or purse etc. Profit goes to the Program budget. Cost is $10. Please swing by the program table to take a look.

Registration is going well for our workshops-please take a look at the website and see if there is a class you are interested in before it sells out. Reminder is that your program schedules workshops with a goal to “break even” which has allowed us to keep our costs as low as possible, however, we do need to fill classes.

October workshops include October 5th (event #25-14-indicates class number on the website) a Julie Faulkner workshop (at Chaster House, 1549 Ocean Beach Esplanade, Gibsons)-helping attendees with complex patterns-whether that is a paper piecing Quiltworx pattern or a ByAnnie pattern-she is quite knowledgeable about these instructions and is helping many members complete projects that have been stalled for many a year. Cost is $62. (non-members $77)

October 17th (event #25-13) Sew Day for the Quilt Show (Eric Cardinal Hall, 930 Chamberlain Rd, Gibsons)-we will be working on making full size notebook covers. This is a fund raiser for your program department and will be sold at the 2025 Quilt Show boutique. If you can come and sew or cut/press for the day that would be awesome. Cost $10

Note that the pattern is on the website for those who cannot come to the event but would like to participate and make some at home. We have purchased many notebooks to go inside the covers so we do need lots of covers to be made.

October 27th (event #25-02)) a Julie Faulkner workshop (at ECH)-this is a ruler Free motion class. Using rulers on your domestic machine. Cost $62 (non-members $77)

Continuing our Fat Quarter (FQ) draw. Please bring a FQ that has the colourway starting with the letter “D”. That FQ is registered into a draw, and you have a chance to win them all!

At 10:00 am we will meet at a side table for a DISCUSSION ON QUILT SHOW rules. This is an informational discussion between guild members and the QS registration team about the paperwork required to enter a quilt into the 2025 show. Open discussion with no cost to attendees. We expect the discussion to last 30-45 minutes.

Our business meeting starts at 11:00, wrapping up with Show and Tell. At 12 noon we will then welcome our guest speaker Julie Faulkner-as she leads us through a trunk show and demonstration on some new rulers.

REMINDER: you can see the 2024-2025 SCQG workshop Schedule on our website. Give this a look and see what we have lined up for you this season.

CONTINUED REQUEST: Could some of you part with some FQ or yardage-we are looking for a variety of colours? Program is putting together some projects for the Quilt Show and could use some. Now Wendy E. will also be letting you all know that she wants some as well, for a basket of FQs for the quilt show. She needs LOTS so we can share with her as well. We have indeed received some but more are required.

Please feel free to talk to anyone on the Program Committee about classes etc., as we all want your Guild experience to be positive.

Respectfully submitted by Karen B.

Past Presidents Message

Happy Fall Everyone, I'm so happy to return as your past President this term.

A huge thank you to the members that stepped up to join our executive team and those who stayed on and to Nancy our new fearless leader.

Welcome to the three new members of our comfort society, that is exciting. I saw a note that if you are donating a quilt please provide the backing, if it needs to be quilted please add on 4/5 inches wider than the top. Thank you comfort society.

If you know of a member that could use a card, please send me any details to pastpresident@scquiltersguild.com

Warmly,

Andrea Wilson

Christine's Trunk Show

For the 2024/25 Guild Year, I am excited to introduce the President's Challenge - "Upcycling" a project of your choice to inspire your creativity.

Garments, bags, quilts, art pieces are all eligible. Let your imagination go wild!

At least 60% of your project must be of non-new supplies. "Non new" supplies are things that were something else prior to this project. For example, a bag or garment found in a thrift store that you revamp, embellished, etc. . or from which you salvaged fabric and or hardware. The remaining 40% of your project can be composed of never before sewn fabric, whether new or from your stash, new hardware etc.

Points will be awarded for using biodegradable or recycled material, or materials made from natural resources e.g. bamboo.

This will be judged at the quilt show so entries must be submitted by March.30/25 as per the Quilt show deadline.

An exciting element to this challenge isa $200 cash prize, which has been generously donated by one of our members! The $200 dollar prize will be awarded to the winner.

Member of the Month

I am proud to introduce my friend Rojean Trent, even though she needs no introduction! She is a long time member who has held many positions and is currently, along with Donna, our new BOM committee

I have lived on the Sunshine Coast for 46 years. Came here as a young bride of 21. It wasn't until my youngest daughter was 1 years old that I joined the guild. That was in 1987. A group of crafters called Crafts Galore would have fairs selling their amazing and beautiful handmade products. They were famous here on the coast for their craft fairs. I was always a sewer and admired their work, but could never afford to buy their quilts. When I became pregnant with my oldest I really wanted one of their quilts. I had struggled with pregnancy in the beginning so had many ultra sounds. Pauline Weber was my technician and we became friends. Pauline made me my first handmade quilt and left it for me on my hospital bed after Elise was born. Such an amazing gift. I was hooked!

The guild was very small back then and we met in each others homes. We did not use rotary cutters, rulers and mats yet. All quilts were made by using plastic templates to trace around then cut out with scissors an eyeballed quarter of an inch away from the traced line. The pencil line was then used as your sewing line. I have to admit, it was a very accurate but a time consuming practice. We also hand basted every quilt together on our hands and knees on the floor of someone's kitchen. Quilts then were hand quilted with tiny needles and strong treated thread. We formed calluses on our fingers from needle pricks. I perfected hand quilting on a long frame at Pauline's house. We always helped each other with our quilts. The guild was and always has been an amazing group to belong too.

The smaller groups that have been created and formed over my years in quilting have been my mentors. When an arts group called Out of Bounds did a presentation at Resource Day many years ago now, it inspired Pushing Our Boundaries. We mentored each other while sharing the most interesting life stories. Thank you Carol Bowie, Lee Ewing, Sheila MacDonald and Eryl Shindel. I also spent many years in the Fat Quarters with mentors a plenty! We were always challenging ourselves to be better and encouraged each other.

Some facts that you might not know about me are that I was born in Flin Flon, Manitoba. I grew up in North Burnaby. I worked from age 15 at all the events on the Pacific National Exhibition Grounds. I met my husband at 15. I worked as a Special Education Teaching Assistant for over 35 years. I am CNIB certified in Braille. I retired at 60 because all I could think about at work was textile art.

So, a huge thank you to my tribe of quilters and creators. You mean so much to me.

Rojean
